So sorry to learn of Stella's passingmy sincere condolences to Earl and the boys.
I remember when Stella and Earl were in Minden one day whe I was ice racing early 80's and Stella went along with me as a passenger during a racewe had a great time and we both thoroughly enjoyed it , laughing and hooting all the while .
The McMillan crew were fine neighbors on Cadillac Ave. and a shout out to you from that bunch from back in the day !

Terry and Maureen Kostuik

So very sorry to hear of your mom. Earl and Stella were dear friends of Terry's father Walter Barnes(des) and we continued the friend ship every times we came to Canada from the States. What a delightful couple they were. We have missed them being close the last few years...always had breakfast at the Millpond in Canarvon. Please let us know when the memorial in Canarvon will be.. Will keep Earl in our thoughts. Will truly miss Stella.
