Lynn Hrdlicka-Jennings

I am so sorry to hear that Mary had passed.

To Stephen, I know how close you and your mom were. She will always remain in your heart.

To David, I can't imagine the position you are in. I know you are a very strong, loving and caring man. You must keep on going, for Stephen and Ruth. you can do this. Please reach out to your friends you have my phone number. Please call, any day, any time.

To Ruth, This just isn't right. Mary and I spoke about what if she died, or David, or Stephen. She told me that she went through hell, she had survived too many unimagineaable hurdles, but felt, if she was to become ill, that she wanted people to celebrate her life, don't dwell on her passing, and know that she is always with you. even though we had our differences I love her - always have - always will.

If there is anything that I can help you with, now at this time, and into the future please do not hesitate to contact me.

Forever in my heart. A loss to all who knew her. She truly is released from pain now and with her darling Becky and loving dad, Jim. Truly, my oldest and dearest friend Mary...

Words fall short...

Love to you all, Ruth, David and Stevie and all the family!
