Dear Thomson Family and Adele:

Fond memories of "Grandpa" Bart at Sarah and Sean's wedding when he and Adele took over the dance floor. A wonderful Grandfather and Great Grandfather. Treasure the memories - I am sure there are many!

For my mom Adele and Barton's family we would like to express just how sad we are at this time. Barton was a really great man, always game for fun adventures like trips to Turkey or a drive to Campbellford to pick up chocolate and do lunch. He and my mom loved to go dancing or enjoy an afternoon tea with friends or as they called it "go shop hopping". Barton has known my family since he himself was a school boy. I remember as a kid going to their home up north in a mining community and swimming in the lake there. My brother Dave was covered in blood suckers but I was fine. Dorothy saved him by pouring salt on his legs. These are my memories. Barton was so generous, inviting us to his awesome home on lake since and making dinner and introducing us to Wilbur his pet chipmunk. So many great memories we all have. We miss him dearly but the memories remain. I will never have a cup of Typhoo tea without thinking of Barton.

Barton was my dad's close childhood friend and -- in later years -- my mom's partner in crime/fun/life/dancing/travel/chocolate. Barton was a gentleman and an adventurer and a great companion to both my parents at different times in all of their lives. I know he will be missed dearly by many, but I want to thank him for what he meant to them.
