We do not know all of God's ways, but we are thankful for the precious life Sue was on earth and continues to be now in Jesus' Presence. May peace surround you all who suffer this loss and especially close family and friends, and may God strengthen you Pastor Paul as you grieve, but always within the bounds of God's love and promises of eternal life. Angie and I will be praying for comfort to come to you from God in Christ. We love you all and feel your loss.

I was so sorry to read about Susan's passing. I send my condolences to Paul and Jennifer and Chris. I have known the Powell family since we were young children. Susan and I reconnected when Chris and my son Ryan played hockey. The many cherished memories you have of a wonderful wife and mother will sustain you in the difficult days that follow. My deepest sympathy, Marlene Sell
