I don't even know where to begin. Chris was one of the first people I met during my transition to EDS and he took me under his wing and made me feel like not only a co-worker but family. He took a real interest in your life both at work but also even more so outside of work. He made every single meeting I attended with him fun in some kind of way. Chris was the type of person who would get in your corner and stay in your corner and fight for you as a leader. That can be a rare thing in the IT industry and I always appreciated him for it. I got to know Chris and Aurora outside of work and he also spent the time to get to know my family outside of work - always making the time to have dinner with my wife Linda and I when in town and even come out to see her sing on occasion. It always meant a lot and still does to this day. Chris will be truly missed - I feel as though I have lost a brother - my deepest condolences go out to you Aurora and your family. Chris was truly one of a kind.

Querido Chris,
Hay pérdidas sin fondo que no llenaremos ni aun colectando el amor y las lágrimas de toda la familia y los amigos. Lo que nos faltas, solo se compensa con todo lo que diste. Nos queda tu bondad, tu cariño, el amor y la nobleza que dabas como un niño grande. Que siempre nos acompañes a jugar cuando te recordemos.
Te queremos tus hermanos,
Arman y Ani.
