Your dad sure had a long good life!

He had never once forgot to send us an Xmas card since your mom passed 20 years ago. I wrote him a while ago to say that we appreciated that, and to convey a few anecdotes from when I would spend summer's at your house in the 60's. Ha ha. It was always about getting into some kind of trouble and the WAITING TIL YOUR FATHER GOT HOME. All good fun when I think of it now.

May he dance with grandma in heaven.
I imagine they are watching down and proud of his family.
