Laura Tyner-Clement

Dear Zilia and family, Kalista and I send our deepest condolences to you on the passing of your beloved husband and father Marvin. I always considered him the gentle giant and appreciated his easy going nature and sense of humor. He is with the Lord now.

Robert William Hotrum

Dear Zilia and Family

I am sorry to learn of Marvin's death. Sharron and I admired him for his pride in his family.

I know words can't take away the hurt you're feeling but I want you to know how much I care and am sending you love and strength at this time of loss.

Merv & Lili MacPherson

Dear Zilia and family:

It was with great sadness that we learned of the passing of Marvin, a dear brother in Christ. We are upholding you in prayer for the Lord's precious comfort in a time of deep sorrow. While we know that Marvin has passed into that bright land where there is no longer sorrow, no death, no parting, but only the glorious presence of our Saviour, we also know the pain that parting brings. May the peace of God which passes all human understanding sustain you all throughout this time, and although we cannot be present at the funeral, be assured that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

Love in Christ, Merv & Lili

Darwin Graham

Even though many miles seperated us we talked quite often on the phone. Yeah we hadn't learned to text but we liked to talk about life and about growing up. Always in my heart will be my "little" brother. Thoughts and prayers for Zilia and family...Darwin & Mary

Trenton Baptist Church

Dear Zilia and family,

We were so saddened to hear of Marvin's passing.

Please know that your church family at Trenton Baptist has you in their thoughts and prayers. We cannot be there for support due to COVID so our Benevolent Fund is making an online donation to Sick Kids in keeping with Marvin's wishes. Please let us know if we can help in any other way.

Lynne and Howard McGahey

Dear Zilia and family,

Lynne and I are so sorry to hear of Marvin's passing. He was so cheerful and stoic anytime we saw him and you, Zilia and family, were so supportive of him throughout his long suffering. We just loved talking to him and whenever we had the chance to do so, he always made our day brighter with his dry sense of humour. We really missed not being able to connect with you and Marvin during this past year. Our deepest sympathy to you, Zilia and all your family.

God bless!
Love,
Lynne and Howard McGahey

Prayers and love are with you and your family Zilia during this loss of your precious husband Marvin. I remember when I had conversation with you both down by the water when you were sitting on the bench and enjoying the peace and quiet of the geese swimming and the beautiful sunshine. I was very thankful that I was able to have that little chat with both of you while I was out walking. Cherish all the precious memories that you have shared over the years and this will help. May God wrap His loving arms around you in comfort and give you the strength you need always God Bless you and watch over you
Love in Christ
