My sincere condolences to the family. Fran had a very busy schedule in our retirement residence. If she was not attending one of our in-house programs and activities, she was in a zoom meeting or getting ready to be picked up for the ball game or theatre production. They all made her so very happy. She will be missed by many here at the Baker Centre. Rest in Peace, dear Fran.

Fran and I shared a love of baseball in general, and the Toronto Blue Jays in particular. We talked animatedly of the game and of the players. I know she was a loyal holder of season tickets, and rarely missed a home game....we even bumped into each other at the stadium once!

We also shared a love of playing music through The Bliss i-Band, of which she was a very supportive member. Through that association, I learned much of Fran's devotion to her church and her preference for music with religious meaning.

All of us at the Bliss i-Band will miss you, Fran.
